Add-Ons

CUSTOMIZE YOUR COLLECTION YOUR WAY THE HEIRLOOM PHILOSOPHY

Every wedding is different, which is why your finished album and art collection are fully customized to fit your needs after you have viewed the images in your gallery. Our team of passionate, experienced professionals craft all of your photo products to a world class standard. Not only must the image itself be meticulously edited, retouched, color-corrected and perfected on the photographer's side, but the printing lab must also be equally painstaking in its craftsmanship. We produce most of our prints in house and work with leading manufacturers and producers around the world for our albums and fine art products.

Wedding images are made to be heirlooms. The value of these moments will undoubtedly increase as the years pass. My goal is to provide the very highest quality of production for these heirlooms to ensure that generations can enjoy these precious, once in a lifetime images. Brilliant colour, hand crafted products, and archival quality material is what makes the difference.
